UWYD MEMBERSHIP EXPECTATIONS

Meetings

UWYD meetings are an essential component of project planning and service learning. Meeting times and dates are listed on the Youth Connection Calendar. They are also available on our website volunteerlubbock.org.

- Meetings will last one hour.
- All meetings (unless otherwise noted or summer meetings) will be held at the Westminster Presbyterian Family Center located at 3321 33rd St. Members are expected to respect the building by throwing away trash, pushing tables and chairs into their proper places, and cleaning up spills or messes.
- Members are expected to attend every meeting possible. Therefore, please make arrangements ahead of time so you can be present. Meetings are a time to sign up for service projects, meet other students, receive training, and learn about volunteer expectations.

Guest Speakers

Guest speakers from area United Way agencies will be present at select meetings. These individuals are essential to our group because they present important information about upcoming projects and educate us about the mission and needs of their agencies.

- Members are expected to be courteous and respectful during presentations. Please listen and engage with these speakers and ask questions.

Project Planning & Participation

Project planning and implementation is the central focus of this group. When you sign up for a project, you are committing yourself to the need, the agency, and the project's successful completion.

- UWYD members are expected to attend at least one project per month (on average). Ideally, members will complete 20 hours of service (through projects and meetings) throughout the school year!
- Members are expected to be conscientious and responsible. Therefore, if you know you cannot make it to a project, you must notify Volunteer Center staff no less than 24 hours prior to the project.
- Members should be active and proactive during projects. This means not only completing assigned tasks, but being proactive by looking for additional ways to help.

If you continually sign up for projects and fail to show or engage in inappropriate behavior, you will be asked to end your participation in UWYD.

Communication

Communication within UWYD is essential to the success of our organization. You are expected to maintain good communication with Volunteer Center staff and with each other.

- E-mail is our primary mode for communication. You are responsible for maintaining and checking a working e-mail address. If you do not have an e-mail address, you may utilize your parent or guardian's e-mail address, or you may choose an alternate way to be notified about meetings and projects. (See CiCi for more information.)
- Please check your e-mail on a regular basis. Updates about meetings, new projects or cancellations/changes, and other pertinent information will be communicated via e-mail.
- Please check your junk e-mail settings, reply in a timely manner to e-mails, and alert Volunteer Center staff if you do not receive UWYD e-mails.
- It is your responsibility to notify Volunteer Center staff if you have a change of e-mail, mailing address, or phone number.
- In the case of a project cancellation or location change, Volunteer Center staff will call or text the phone numbers you provide on the Application. Please make sure all phone numbers are correct and check voicemail and answering machines on a regular basis.
